ABSTRACT

Data compiled from the 113 research libraries that were members of the Association of Research Libraries during the 1980-81 academic year display trends that have been emerging since the early 1970s: increasing expenditures, with a greater proportion of expenditures allocated to serials; decreasing numbers of volumes added each year, and little or no increase in overall staff size. A more detailed examination of these trends is provided by the analysis of data from 90 ARL university libraries for the years 1975-76 through 1980-81. Ratios between selected variables were calculated for each library and the media ratios examined for each year. Data and analyses included in this report include selected variables; microform holdings; Ph.D. and enrollment statistics; the ARL Library Index; summary of rank order tables; and rank order tables for volumes in library, volumes added (gross), microform holdings, current serials, professional staff, nonprofessional staff, total staff, materials expenditures, materials and binding expenditures, salaries and wages expenditures, total operating expenditure, total items loaned, total items borrowed, and current serials expenditures. A copy of the ARL Statistics Questionnaire is included. (RBF)

AGGREGATE EXPENDITURES AND RESOURCES OF 90 ARL UNIVERSITY LIBRARIES, FISCAL YEARS 1976-1981

INTRODUCTION

The 1980-81 ARL Statistics presents data compiled from the 113 research libraries that were members of the Association during the 1980-81 academic year. Two libraries joined ARL in 1981: the libraries of the University of California, Irvine and the University of Manitoba. Reports from these two libraries are included in the Statistics for the first time this year.

The figures reported by ARL libraries for the fiscal year 1980-81 again display trends that have been emerging since the early 1970's: increasing expenditures, with a greater proportion of expenditures allocated to serials; decreasing numbers of volumes added each year; and little or no increase in overall staff size. To examine these trends in more detail, an analysis was performed on data from 90 ARL university libraries for the years 1975-76 through 1980-81.¹ The graph on the preceding page summarizes the total expenditures of these 90 libraries since 1975-76, as well as the level of resources maintained during these years, as measured by library materials and staff.²

The aggregate figures, converted to index numbers for comparison, show the combined effort of 90 major research libraries. The largest increases in the expenditures of these libraries have been for serials, averaging 13.8% per year, and for operations (exclusive of personnel, library materials, and building maintenance) averaging 11.6% per year. Outlays for library materials other than serials have risen only 4.2% per year, falling well below the rate of inflation as measured by the Higher Education Price Index.³ As might be expected, the relative reduction in spending for monographs is accompanied by a decline, averaging -3% per year, in the gross number of volumes added to these 90 collections annually. And, despite escalating expenditures for serials, the total number of serials titles acquired each year has risen very little. (In part, the slight increase in numbers of serials since 1978-79 may be a reflection of the clarified definition of "current serials" that appeared in the 1979-80 Statistics questionnaire making explicit the inclusion of government document serials in ARL reports.)

The aggregate figures displayed on the graph result, in part, from decisions made in each of the 90 university libraries regarding the allocation of limited resources. To gain more insight into possible trends in individual operations, ratios between selected variables were calculated for each library and the median ratios examined for each year since 1975-76. Results are shown in the following table.

¹Data analysis performed by Kendon ~~...~~os. Libraries included are all those that have been ARL members since 1975-76 and which lack no more than one data value for the years covered. Figures used in this analysis include all reported errata and Canadian expenditures as converted to U.S. dollars.

²Graph based on a design by Richard Talbot.

³For a description of the Higher Education Price Index see Halstead, D. Kent, Higher Education Prices and Price Indexes (Washington, D.C.: U.S. Office of Education, 1975) and Research Associates of Washington, Higher Education Prices and Price Indexes: 1981 Update (Washington, D.C.: Research Associates, 1981).

MEDIAN PERCENTAGES OF SELECTED VARIABLES FOR 90 ARL UNIVERSITY LIBRARIES
	1975/76	1976/77	1977/78	1978/79	1979/80	1980/81
1. Salary and Wage Expenditures as percent of Total Expenditures	58	58	57	56	56	55
2. Other Operating Expenditures as percent of Total Expenditures	8	8	9	9	9	10
3. Materials Expenditures as percent of Total Expenditures	32	30	31	32	33	32
4. Serials Expenditures as percent of Materials Expenditures	46	48	53	55	55	58
5. Professional Staff as percent of Total Staff	27	26	26	25	25	25
6. Nonprofessional Staff as percent of Total Staff	53	53	53	52	53	53
7. Student Assistants as percent of Total Staff	20	20	21	21	21	22

The most dramatic change since 1975-76 is the increasing percentage of materials expenditures allocated to serials — a steady rise from 46% in 1975-76 to 58% in 1980-81. At the same time, the outlays for all types of library materials have remained at 32% of total funds expended. Operating expenditures, which include automation costs in some of the libraries, have been receiving a slowly increasing share of the total, while the percentage spent on salaries and wages appears to be declining slightly. This latter trend may be linked to the slowly decreasing portion of total FTE positions occupied by professionals and the concomitant increase in student assistants. While these shifts are very slight, they bear watching since they may be related to such recent changes in the research library environment as automation, shared cataloging, and reduced acquisitions.

When studying the data published in this year's ARL Statistics, a few minor changes should be noted. Libraries unable to report figures for their main campus only are coded with a "B" in the main data table so that reports which include one or more branch campuses can be identified easily. The letter code "G" has been used in the main data table to distinguish those reports that do not include government documents in the count of current serials titles. To aid comparability, expenditures of Canadian libraries are again expressed in U.S. dollars; the exchange rate used this year is 1.1843 Canadian dollars to one U.S. dollar.⁴

The rank order tables and index scores presented in this publication are in no way intended to imply qualitative evaluations of the institutions described. In comparing any individual library to ARL medians or to other ARL members, evaluations must always be made within the context of local goals and characteristics.

Carol A. Mandel
ARL Associate Executive Director
December 16, 1981

⁴The rate used is the average monthly noon exchange rate published in the Bank of Canada Review for the period July 1980 through June 1981. Expenditures as reported in Canadian dollars are given in the Footnotes to the Statistics.

GUIDE TO LIBRARY CODE NUMBERS

The institutions listed below are the 113 institutions that were members of the Association of Research Libraries in 1981. Each has been assigned a code number for use on the data tables on pages 8-17 in place of the names of the institutions. (See columns labeled "Library Code No." to the left of columns 1 and 12). Numbers 1-101 have been used to designate the 101 university library members of the Association. Numbers 102-113 designate the 12 nonacademic members.

ANALYSIS OF SELECTED VARIABLES OF UNIVERSITY LIBRARIES

The percentages and ratios below are intended to summarize the basic data in the ARL Library Data Tables. The high, median, and low figures indicate the range as well as the midpoint for ARL's 101 university library members.

	Category	High	Median	Low
1.	Professional Staff as percent of Total Staff	36	25	15
2.	Nonprofessional Staff as percent of Total Staff	74	52	20
3.	Student Assistant Staff as percent of Total Staff	57	21	6
4.	Ratio of Professional to Non-professional Staff (excluding student assistants)	1.1:1	0.5:1	0.2:1
5.	Ratio of Items Loaned to Items Borrowed	27.6:1	2.3:1	0.3:1
6.	Materials Expenditures as percent of Total Operating Expenditures	44	32	20
7.	Serials Expenditures as percent of Materials Expenditures	83	57	36
8.	Salary and Wage Expenditures as percent of Total Operating Expenditures	73	55	34
9.	Ratio of Salary and Wage Expenditures to Materials Expenditures	3.5:1	1.7:1	1:1

Median figures are useful indicators when there is wide dispersion within a distribution. Because the mean represents a "balance point," a few very high or low scores may sometimes pull the mean away from the actual point at which values cluster. Medians, on the other hand, are a measure of central tendency, focusing on the midpoint in a distribution, and are thus preferable for describing ARL libraries.

THE ARL LIBRARY INDEX*

The data tables at the beginning of the ARL Statistics display figures reported by ARL member libraries in 22 categories that, with the exception of the measures of interlibrary loan activity, describe the size of ARL libraries in terms of holdings, expenditures, and personnel. The rank order tables provide an overview of the ranges and medians for 14 of these categories, or variables, among ARL academic libraries, as well as quantitatively comparing each library with other ARL member institutions. However, no one of the 22 variables provides a summary measure of a library's relative size within ARL or characterizes the ARL libraries as a whole.

The ARL Library Index has been derived as a means of providing this summary characterization, permitting quantitative comparisons of ARL academic libraries, singly and as a group, with other academic libraries. Through the use of statistical techniques known as factor analysis, it can be determined that 15 of the variables reported to ARL are more closely correlated with each other than with other categories. Within this group of 15 variables, some are subsets or combinations of others, e.g. expenditures for serials are a subset of expenditures for library materials. When the subsets and combinations are eliminated, ten variables emerge as characteristic of ARL library size. These are: volumes held, volumes added (gross), microform units held, current serials received, expenditures for library materials, expenditures for binding, total salary and wage expenditures, other operating expenditures, number of professional staff, and number of nonprofessional staff.

These ten categories delineate an underlying dimension, or factor, of library size. By means of principal component analysis, a technique that is a variant of factor analysis, it is possible to calculate the correlations of each of the variables with this hypothetical factor of library size. From this analysis, a weight for each variable can be determined based upon how closely that variable is correlated with the overall dimension of library size defined by all ten categories. A high correlation indicates that much of the variation in ARL library size is accounted for by the variable in question, implying a characteristic in which ARL libraries are relatively alike. The component score coefficients, or weights, for the 1980-81 ARL academic library data are:

Volumes held	.12417
Volumes added (gross)	.11785
Microforms held	.07832
Current serials received	.12493
Expenditures for library materials	.12500
Expenditures for binding	.10714
Expenditures for salaries and wages	.12806
Other operating expenditures	.10489
Number of professional staff	.12807
Number of nonprofessional staff	.11823

*For a full description of the index see Kendon Stubbs, The ARL Library Index and Quantitative Relationships in the ARL (Washington, D.C.: ARL, 1980).

From these weights an individual library can compute an index score that will indicate its relative position among ARL libraries with respect to the overall factor of library size. The data for each of the ten variables are converted to standard normal form and multiplied by the appropriate weight. The resulting scores are expressed in terms of the number of standard deviations above or below the mean index score for ARL academic libraries. Thus the formula* for calculating a library's 1980-81 index score is:

$$\begin{aligned}
 &.12417 (\log \text{ of volumes held} - 6.2994)/.2161 \\
 + &.11785 (\log \text{ of volumes added gross} - 4.8182)/.2086 \\
 + &.07832 (\log \text{ of microforms} - 6.1263)/.1823 \\
 + &.12493 (\log \text{ of current serials} - 4.3507)/.2331 \\
 + &.12500 (\log \text{ of expenditures for materials} - 6.2704)/.1662 \\
 + &.10714 (\log \text{ of expenditures for binding} - 5.0642)/.2460 \\
 + &.12806 (\log \text{ of total salaries} - 6.5068)/.2057 \\
 + &.10489 (\log \text{ of operating expenditures} - 5.7245)/.2688 \\
 + &.12807 (\log \text{ of professional staff} - 1.8290)/.1889 \\
 + &.11823 (\log \text{ of nonprofessional staff} - 2.1554)/.2025
 \end{aligned}$$

The index scores for the 101 academic libraries that were members of ARL during 1980-81 are shown on the following page. It is important to emphasize that these scores are only a summary description of library size, distributing ARL libraries along a normal curve, based on ten quantitative measures that are positively correlated with one another in ARL libraries. The scores are in no way a qualitative assessment of the collections, services, or operations of these libraries.

*For calculation on a hand calculator, the formula can be mathematically simplified to:

$$\begin{aligned}
 &.57460 \times \log \text{ of volumes held} \\
 + &.56496 \times \log \text{ of volumes added gross} \\
 + &.42962 \times \log \text{ of microforms} \\
 + &.53595 \times \log \text{ of current serials} \\
 + &.75211 \times \log \text{ of expenditures for materials} \\
 + &.43553 \times \log \text{ of expenditures for binding} \\
 + &.62256 \times \log \text{ of total salaries} \\
 + &.39022 \times \log \text{ of operating expenditures} \\
 + &.67798 \times \log \text{ of professional staff} \\
 + &.58385 \times \log \text{ of nonprofessional staff} \\
 - &27.01014

SUMMARY OF RANK ORDER TABLES FOR UNIVERSITY LIBRARIES

The table below presents the rank for each university library in each of the fourteen categories for which rank order tables are prepared. As a further indication of the relative position of each institution, note that, in the individual rank order tables on the following pages, "group codes" are used. This is done because, in a number of cases, there is a relatively insignificant difference between two institutions which are nevertheless given two different rankings. The "coarser" ranking provided by clustering institutions into groups (based upon ranges) more realistically describes a library's relative standing.

The table numbers in the chart below refer to the following categories:

Table 1 - Volumes in Library	Table 8 - Materials Expenditures
Table 2 - Volumes Added (Gross)	Table 9 - Materials & Binding Expenditures
Table 3 - Total Microform Holdings	Table 10 - Salaries & Wages Expenditures
Table 4 - Current Serials	Table 11 - Total Expenditures
Table 5 - Professional Staff (FTE)	Table 12 - Total Items Loaned
Table 6 - Nonprofessional Staff (FTE)	Table 13 - Total Items Borrowed
Table 7 - Total Staff (FTE)	Table 14 - Current Serials Expenditures

RANK ORDER TABLE 1: VOLUMES IN LIBRARY

The grouping of institutions below is done because, in a number of cases, there is a relatively insignificant difference between two institutions, which are nevertheless given two different rankings. In order to provide a "coarser" ranking, the institutions are thus clustered into groups according to the ranges specified here.

Group ranges (in thousands) are:

1- 7,000 and over	5- 3,000-3,999
2- 6,000-6,999	6- 2,000-2,999
3- 5,000-5,999	7- 1,000-1,999
4- 4,000-4,999	8- under 1,000

RANK ORDER TABLE 2: VOLUMES ADDED (GROSS)

The grouping of institutions below is done because, in a number of cases, there is a relatively insignificant difference between two institutions, which are nevertheless given two different rankings. In order to provide a "coarser" ranking, the institutions are thus clustered into groups according to the ranges specified here.

The ranges for the groups below are:

1- 200,000 and over	6- 100,000-119,999
2- 180,000-199,999	7- 80,000- 99,999

RANK ORDER TABLE 6: NONPROFESSIONAL STAFF (FTE)

The grouping of institutions below is done because, in a number of cases, there is a relatively insignificant difference between two institutions, which are nevertheless given two different rankings. In order to provide a "coarser" ranking, the institutions are thus clustered into groups according to the ranges specified here.

The ranges for the groups below are:

1- 450 and over	6- 200-249

RANK ORDER TABLE 11: TOTAL OPERATING EXPENDITURES

The grouping of institutions below is done because, in a number of cases, there is a relatively insignificant difference between two institutions, which are nevertheless given two different rankings. In order to provide a "coarser" ranking, the institutions are thus clustered into groups according to the ranges specified here.

Group ranges (in thousands) are:

1- 11,000 and over	6- 6,000-6,999

ARL STATISTICS 1980-81

Instructions for Completion of the Questionnaire

1. Definitions of the statistical categories used in this questionnaire can be found in Library Statistics: A Handbook of Concepts, Definitions and Terminology (Chicago: American Library Association, 1966).
2. All figures should be rounded to the nearest whole number.
3. In a university which includes both main and branch campuses, an effort should be made to report figures for the main campus only. (The National Center for Education Statistics in its Higher Education General Information Survey describes a branch campus as one "located in a community different from that in which its parent institution is located ... beyond a reasonable commuting distance from the main campus ...") If figures for libraries located on branch campuses are reported, please provide an explanatory footnote on p. 3 of the questionnaire.
4. Questions 1-6. Use the ALA definition for "Volume" as noted in instruction 1 above. Include duplicates and bound volumes of periodicals. Exclude microforms, nonprint materials, uncataloged items, and government documents unless cataloged. (Government document volumes classed separately may be included if cataloged.) If any of these items must be included, please provide an explanatory footnote on p. 3 of the questionnaire.
5. Question 6. If the volume count reported on line 5 includes government documents, report the subtotal of those volumes that are maintained in a separate government documents collection. Enclose the figure in curves if only an estimated count is available. If government documents are not included in your library's volume count, or if none of those reported are kept in a separate collection, enter "0" on line 6.
6. Question 7. Include duplicate subscriptions and government document serials. Because of the number of questions raised regarding the counting of serials, we call to your attention the definition to be used for this survey.

Publications constituting one issue in a continuous series under the same title published at regular or irregular intervals, over an indefinite period; individual issues in the series being numbered consecutively or each issue being dated. Newspapers as well as publications appearing annually or less frequently are included in the definition.
7. Questions 13-16 - Personnel. Report the number of staff in filled positions, or positions which are only temporarily vacant. Include staff hired for special projects and grants, but provide an explanatory footnote indicating the number of such staff on p. 3 of the questionnaire. The number of FTE staff should be determined on the basis of the length of the work week in the reporting library.

8. Question 13. Since the criteria for determining professional status vary among libraries, there is no attempt to define the term "professional." Each library should report those staff members it considers professional, including, when appropriate, staff who are not librarians in the strict sense of the term, such as computer experts, systems analysts, budget officers, etc.
9. Questions 17-23 - Expenditures. Report all expenditures, regardless of whether the funds come from the regular library budget or from special funds, such as research grants. When special project or grant funds are included, please provide a footnote indicating the amount of such funds on p. 3 of the questionnaire. Include federal funds for work study students.

Canadian libraries should report expenditures in both Canadian and U.S. dollars. To determine figures in U.S. dollars, divide Canadian dollar amounts by 1.1843, the average monthly noon exchange rate published in the Bank of Canada Review for the period July 1980 - June 1981.

10. Question 22. Report net expenditures after any cost recovery. Exclude expenditures for buildings and maintenance, and for fringe benefits.
11. Questions 24-25 - Ph.D. Degrees. Please note that only the number of Ph.D. degrees are to be counted. Statistics on all other advanced degrees (e.g., D.Ed., D.P.A., M.D., J.D.) are not required for this survey. If you are unable to provide a figure for Ph.D.s only, please note this in a footnote on p. 3 of the questionnaire.
12. Question 25. For the purposes of this report, Ph.D. fields are equivalent to the several hundred specific discipline specialties enumerated in the form used by the U.S. Department of Education in collecting statistics on higher education. The official title of the form is: "Higher Education General Information Survey, Degrees and Other Formal Awards." It is designated as NCES Form 2300-2.1A. Although the HEGIS form requests figures for all doctoral degrees, only fields in which Ph.D.s are awarded should be reported on the ARL questionnaire. Any exceptions should be noted in a footnote on p. 3 of the questionnaire.
13. Questions 28-31 - Enrollment. Please use figures reported to the U.S. Department of Education on the form entitled "Higher Education General Information Survey, Fall Enrollment and Compliance Report of Institutions of Higher Education." It is designated as NCES Form 2300-2.3A. The line and column numbers on the HEGIS form for each category are noted on the questionnaire.
14. Reporting libraries are urged to record in the footnote section any circumstances that would clarify the figures submitted, e.g., the inclusion of branch campus libraries. Explanatory footnotes will be included with the published statistics.
